SEATO Action Is Feared by India

By EUGENE LEVIN

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—SEATO endorsement of a U. N. plebiscite in the disputed state of Kashmir, a vote urged by Pakistan and opposed by India—detonated sharp Indian reaction today.

Both India and U.S. circles here feared the backing given Pakistan by its partners in the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization had dealt a damaging blow to the coming talks here this week-end between U.S. Secretary of State Dulles and Prime Minister Nehru.

News reports received here said Dulles and the other seven SEATO foreign ministers at their Karachi meeting had urged that the dispute be settled in the U. N. by India and Pakistan directly. The reports from Karachi noted that the SEATO ministers did not go into the merits of each nation's claim to the Himalayan state.

But Indian newspapers generally were critical of SEATO for even considering the Kashmir matter. They asserted any Kashmir statement made in Karachi implies support to Pakistan.

The Hindustan Times, which generally reflects the Nehru government's reaction, said in a front-page story that "political circles in New Delhi express their surprise and annoyance at the reports of complicity of a few Western representatives at Karachi."

AP&L Rate Increase Is Refused

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas Power & Light Co.'s newest bid for a rate increase was rejected by the state Public Service Commission yesterday, and AP&L promptly announced it would appeal the decision to the courts.

The PSC turned down an application by the company to add a million dollars a year to a temporary $4,200,000 increase which AP&L has been collecting under bond since July 1, 1954.

Company witnesses in the long, intermittent PSC hearing on the request claimed that AP&L needs $5,200,000 annually in new revenue to earn a six per cent return on its capital investment.

In denying the big utility's application, the PSC said that AP&L now earns 5.88 per cent on its permanent rates, which were fixed by the commission in 1944. Any return between 5.5 and 6.25 per cent is a "reasonable" profit for the company, said the order.

There is no statutory ceiling on utility earnings in Arkansas, but the PSC traditionally has set the maximum figure at six per cent.

"To say we are disappointed in the decision of the PSC would be an understatement," commented AP&L President R. E. Ritchie in announcing that the decision would be appealed to Pulaski Circuit Court.

"Our rate application was filed in good faith, predicated on the money invested in our facilities. We have no alternative other than to proceed to press our application in the courts in order to pre-

Soviet Group Accused by SEATO Envoys

By HAROLD K. MILK S

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP)—SEATO ministers accused Soviet leaders tonight of attempting through recent statements and other activities, to "increase tension and promote division among Asian communities."

Other free nations also are targets of the Russian campaign, the ministerial council of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization declared in a communique issued at the window of a three-day meeting.

The six-page communique said the Soviet attempt is being carried on through "statements and interventions." No leaders were named, but the phrase obviously was intended to encompass the recent visit by Communist party boss Nikita S. Khrushchev and Premier Nikolai Bulganin to India, Burma and Afghanistan, which stirred up several simmering controversies.

"The council deplored statements and interventions by Soviet leaders . . . designed to increase tension and promote division in Asian communities and among other nations of the free world," the communique said.

It added that all eight SEATO members recognize that the sovereignty of Pakistan extends to the present Afghanistan border and includes the Pushtoonistan area that Afghanistan wants converted into a separate tribal state.

It said the region falls within the SEATO area as outlined in Article 4 of the Manila treaty, which provides that all member nations consult on common action in event of aggression.

Fort Smith Gas History May Be a Prophecy

LITTLE ROCK, (Special) —Review of the state Public Service Commission orders which have (1) granted Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. $7,000,000 a year increase in revenues through higher rates and have (2) twice rejected Arkansas Power and Light Co., applications for a total of $5,200,000 annually suggests a question:

What has Arkansas Louisiana Gas got that Arkansas Power and Light doesn't have?

The answer might well be: W.R. Stephens.

Stephens heads the W. R. Stephens Investment Co., Little Rock, which in the latter part of 1954 acquired 51 per cent of the common stock of Ark-La. Gas from Cities Service Co.

This was not Stephens' first venture in the gas business. In 1944 he bought the Fort Smith Gas Corp., which served domestic and commercial customers in the Fort Smith area. He eventually gained control also of Arkansas-Oklahoma Gas Co., which sold gas to industrial customers and to Fort Smith Gas Corp.

Stephens waited six years before asking, and obtaining, a rate increase at Fort Smith. It came, uncontested, shortly before the 1950 primary campaign in which Sidney McMath was renominated as governor. McMath was a Stephens political protégé. The Fort Smith Gas increase did not affect industries; it hit the domestic consumers whom Stephens, since taking over Ark-La control, has frequently referred to as "biscuit cookers."

When he became the Ark-La. ramrod, he lost no time filing an application for higher rates for industries, leaving undisturbed the domestic rates as fixed by the PSC in approving 80 per cent of the increase sought by Ark-La prior to the Stephens stock purchase but not ruled on until afterward. The PSC gave Ark-La everything it asked for in the industrial rate schedule—fixed price instead of actual production cost of gas from its own wells, an eight per cent earning from industries and the entire benefit (to the exclusion of rate payers) of the depletion allowance for income tax purposes.

This order landed him in Pulaski Circuit Court, where a pre-trial conference will soon be held. The PSC's permission for Ark-La to collect the higher rates under bond while disregarding escalator clauses in the schedule also led to litigation. Ark-La won out in Pulaski Chancery and in the Supreme Court in one case; now it faces early submission to the Supreme Court of an appeal by other industries from Pulaski Circuit Court on the same point. With this must contend with appeals by two groups of industries and by the United States Government from the final PSC decision in its favor.

He encountered no such resistance to the Fort Smith Gas Corp. rate increases. The 1950 change boosted the cost five cents per thousand cubic feet for the first 100,000 c. ft. in May, 1955, an adjustment made the cost of the

'DIVIDES' PROPERTY

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UP)—Joe Truman Allen's wife testified at his divorce trial yesterday that the 33-year-old packinghouse worker did not wait for court action to divide their community property.

Mrs. Allen said her husband took their chairs and a sofa apart and put the pieces in two equal piles. When he came to the dining room table he sawed it in half, she said.

Work Order on Highway 29 to Blevins Issued

A work order for long awaited highway construction in Hempstead County has been issued by the State Highway Department, effective March 5.

The project consists of approximately 14,133 miles of grading, minor drainage structures, gravel base, double bituminous surfacing and one reinforced concrete slab span bridge, totaling 75 feet in length, on Highway 29-S-4 on the Hope to Blevins road.

Contract for the work was awarded to Graves Brothers of Pine Bluff on Jan. 25 by the State Highway Commission on a low bid of $235,016. 51 and specifies 200 working days for completion.

The project begins at the junction of Highways 32 and 29 north of Hope and extends northerly approximately 14,133 miles generally following the present location of Highway 29 into Blevins.

W. L. Oliver, resident engineer with the Highway Department, will supervise construction.

Judges from Hempstead and Lafayette Counties offered the gift of a County road to the State Highway Commission in a hearing here February 29.

The County road is from Hope to Buckner and was described as one serving a heavily populated area. The Judges contended that a shortage of funds poses a maintenance problem that the Counties would like for the State to assume.

Judges A. B. Parker and U. C. Garrett praised the Commission for past road construction accomplishments in the two Counties but were agreed that innumerable benefits could be derived by both areas if the State would take the road from Hope to Buckner into the System.

Cecil Lynch, chairman of the Commission, said the Commission has a definite policy and belief that its responsibility still is for those roads already on the System. "We have to give you a disappointment on this request now but we hope the time will come when we will be able to annex several of the highly traveled County roads to the highway system."

Other members of the delegation were Carl Hinton, Autry Wilson, Glen Hollis and J. E. McWilliams.

41 Convicts Are Given Paroles

CUMMINS PRISON FARM, (UP)—A 32-year-old Poinsett County woman who poisoned her first husband with a strychnine highball was paroled from the state penitentiary yesterday after serving 28 months for second degree murder.

The state Parole Board freed Vanteen Dean Smith and 40 other convicts in parole. The board, holding its first meeting at the prison farm under a new policy, also recommended communications of sentence for five prisoners.

Mrs. Smith was sentenced in Poinsett Circuit Court on Nov. 16, 1953, to six years in prison for killing Harold A. Dean, operator of a cafe at Riverdale. She became eligible for parole after serving a third of her sentence.

Dean's death first was attributed to pneumonia, but an autopsy later confirmed that he died of strychnine poisoning. Shortly after her first husband died Mrs. Smith married 23-year-old Clyde Smith, also of Riverdale.

Mrs. Smith's first trial, which once was postponed after she gave birth to a son while in custody, ended in a deadlocked jury. She was convicted at a second trial.

Ike Shirking No Duties, White House Declares

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House said today President Eisenhower has reduced none of his constitutional duties and has no intention of doing so.

Assistant Press Secretary Murray Snyder made the statement to newsmen in comment on an assertion by Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) that Eisenhower intends to "shrink" the chief executive's office as the result of his heart attack.

"Any much contraction of the presidency as is contemplated in the Eisenhower proposal," Sparkman said last night, "cannot but upset the balances set up in our Constitution for the preservation of popular government."

Snyder, replying to newsmen's requests for comment of Sparkman's remarks, said: "I think the President very clearly states at news conferences yesterday the distinction between his constitutional duties and his hospitalities duties, the latter being the department in which he has reduced his activities."

Asked whether that is the only department in which Eisenhower has reduced his activities or intends to do so, Snyder said: "I certainly don't think he has reduced his constitutional duties."

"I don't think the senator Sparkman would measure his services by the number of hours he puts in on the Senate floor or by the number of constituents he sees."

In reply to another question, Snyder said he did not know whether Eisenhower heard Sparkman on the radio or had read Sparkman's address in the newspapers.

Sparkman's contention that Eisenhower wants to "shrink" the presidency is being made also by other Democrats.

Chairman Paul M. Butler of the Democratic National Committee advanced similar arguments in a speech at Louisville, Ky., in which he said Eisenhower's health is a major campaign issue.

Eisenhower said yesterday that

Compromise Is Proposed in Farm Supports

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Case (R-SD) proposed today that he termed a "compromise" in the hot Senate argument over rigid vs. flexible farm price supports, suggesting rigid supports be limited to this election year.

Attached to the pending administration omnibus soil bank farm plan is a provision for restoring 80 per cent price supports, the World War II level.

The amendment Case offered would limit the restoration of wartime 90 per cent supports to this election year instead of the two-year period that has been proposed.

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate's day of decision on an election year farm bill arrived today with critics accusing the Eisenhower administration of "pressure" and "political maneuvering."

Not so, said Sen. Aiken (R-Vt.), leading a touch-and-go fight for retention of the administration-backed system of flexible farm price supports. Declaring that no improper pressures are being exerted, Aiken said:

"Of course the proponents of a sound farm program, are doing everything possible to get a good bill. We are doing all we can and I am confident that we will win."

Chairman Ellender (D-La.) of the Senate Agriculture Committee, floor manager for the bill which would scrap the administration price supports in favor of a return to rigid props, countered that "I still believe we have the votes."

Ellender said in a separate interview that the White House and the Agriculture Department "are holding a lot of pressure on this test," particularly on "bottom" senators.

Patient Is Accused of Big Holdup

NEW YORK (AP) — The FBI arrested a patient in a Bronx hospital last night and accused him of being the daring gunman who staged the $188,000 robbery last Friday of a suburban Westchester County bank.

Federal agents said they recovered $100,000 of the loot from the trunk of a car belonging to the prisoner, 33-year-old Arthur L. Palsner, a Bronx radio-horoscope trainer.

Palsner — who, with a still-sought companion allegedly kidnapped a woman teller of the County Trust Co.'s drive-in ranch at Port Chester — will be arraigned today before a U.S. commissioner. He was held under guard at the hospital last night.

Palsner was hospitalized since Monday after undergoing minor surgery. He was arrested in bed. Neither the nature of his ailment nor the name of the hospital was disclosed.

Two men abducted the teller, Mrs. Mary F. Kostolos, 52, last Thursday night as she drove up to her home. They drove around all night in her car and "quizzed" her on bank operations and personnel.

Before the bank opened Friday, they forced Mrs. Kostolos to open the bank with her key. Then one man took over inside. The FBI says it was Palsner.

The other man disappeared. The FBI said they were seeking him and the missing $88,000.

No shots were fired during the holdup. The FBI said evidence found in an automobile stolen from a New Haven Railroad parking lot at Larchmont, N.Y., also in Westchester County, led agents to Palsner.

After getting inside the bank the gunman bound and blindfolded Mrs. Kostolos and put her in a closet.

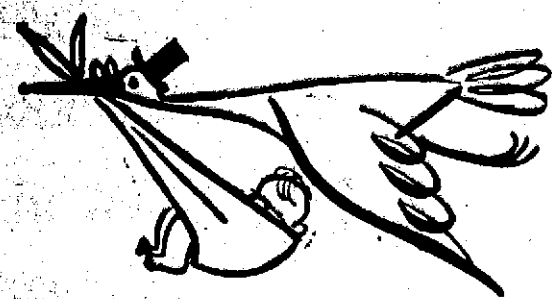

When teller Ernest Marino arrived, he too was trussed up. J. Purdy Ungemack, the assistant treasurer, arrived a few minutes later, and was forced to open the vault and carry money in loaded containers to Mrs. Kostolos, who parked at the curb. The car was found minutes later in a parking lot.

A thousand turkeys will drink between 50 and 70 tons of water in a season.

Accidents cause more deaths among boys 10 to 14 years old than any other single cause.

Fort Smith Gas

first 1,000 c.f. $1.10. Previously, the minimum had been 50 cents. By that time, Stephens had bought into Arkansas-Oklahoma Gas Co., and had effected a spin-off of properties which left Fort Smith Gas Corp., as sole distributor in Fort Smith. In taking over the industrial customers from Arkansas-Oklahoma Gas Co., Fort Smith Gas adopted the former's 15-cent rate for major industries and made it applicable to all who used more than 1,000,000 c.f. monthly. That actually was a cut in Fort Smith's Gas heavy use rates, for its lowest previously had been 10 1/2 cents for all using more than 300,000 cubic feet per month.

The spin-off involving Fort Smith Gas and Arkansas-Oklahoma Gas resulted in the Stephens Production Co. acquiring most, perhaps all, of Arkansas-Oklahoma's gas wells and related properties. The latest Fort Smith Gas report to the PSC shows Stephens as the principal supplier of gas sold by Fort Smith Gas Corp., which Stephens owns. All except qualifying shares of his associates in the company belong to Stephens personally.

A spin-off of Arkansas Louisiana

Gas producing, extracting and gathering properties was announced as an early objective when Stephens purchased control. At that time, Stephens River Fuel Corp., was slated to become the owner of the facilities which Ark-La proposed to transfer. Tax liability was given recently by Stephens as the reason for abandonment of the original plan.

However, Stephens says that a spin-off may yet be effected — if in his opinion, it would benefit Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. But Mississippi River Fuel is no longer favored as the potential recipient; Stephens himself might decide to follow the precedent he set at Fort Smith. He could become the owner of the gas wells now owned by Arkansas Louisiana Gas, just as he divided the Fort Smith Gas and Arkansas-Oklahoma properties so that the cost of the gas purchased by Fort Smith Gas from Stephens Production Co., no longer is subject to regulation by the Public Service Commission, even if the PSC were inclined to exercise its power and authority. Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. recently has pointed with pride to a $4.86 average rate for its customers under a 100 cubic feet per month. The cost of 100 cubic feet at Fort Smith when Stephens bought the company was $3.57, the 1950 increase raised that to $3.42, and the present rate, approved in 1955, is $4.14.

Ike Shirking No

If he should ever feel physically unable to carry on the essential duties of the White House, "I won't be there." He did not make clear whether he meant that in such circumstances he would resign or reverse his week-old decision to seek a second term. Sparkman, Democratic vice presidential nominee in 1952, said in an MBS talk that Eisenhower is proposing to hand over to associates "functions which lie at the very core of the presidency." The Democrats chose Sparkman to reply to Eisenhower's nationwide radio-television talk of a week earlier in which the President explained his second-term decision.

Sparkman said that in discussing the medically imposed limits on his activities in any second term, Eisenhower was "quite frankly and openly saying to the country that he can never be a truly full-time president."

"If a full measure of health is ever needed anywhere," Sparkman continued, "it is needed in the White House."

"I do not hesitate to say that the American people cannot and will not sanction the Republican proposal for a part-time president to deal with full-time problems."

Sparkman declared that an "absence of full-time presidential command" is reflected in almost daily newspaper accounts indicating what he termed "indecision, confusion and drift" at home and abroad.

"And now," he said, "the people are being asked to sanction the indefinite extension of this lapse in our constitutional system, in circumstances which make the hazards larger rather than smaller."

Americans use an average of 20 pounds of rubber per year per person compared with about 1 pound for the rest of the world.

serve our financial integrity." Because of increased operating costs, said Ritchie, "the company has not been able to earn the allowed return of six per cent. since 1947."

In its order, the 3-member PSC said "company witnesses dealt entirely with generalities, stating that costs generally had increased."

The commission added that cross-examination had developed, however, that "due to increased efficiency the cost of generating a kilowatt hour of electricity was less during the test period than in 1947."

Favorites in Class A State Meet Advance

By TOM DYCARD

HARRISON (A) — Green Forest led a field of favorites into the quarter-final round of the state Class A senior boys high school Basketball Tournament here today.
Devoid of anything resembling the upsets which usually pepper the 18-team playoff for the state schoolboy championship, the second round was cleared away yesterday with these results:

Green Forest's Tigers smothered
Lavaca 66-49.
Jonesboro's fast-breaking Golden Hurricane, scoring almost at will, wrecked Stuttgart 66-37.

North Little Rock overran Emerson 77-59 with substitutes playing much of the fourth period.

Rogers led all the way in dumping Center Ridge 62-53.

Whitehall was in command from start to finish, turning back Augusta 62-52.

Without a single rugged test in the first 10 games, the pre-tournament favorites moved into the quarter-finals on this schedule today:

Rogers, champion of the District
1-W tournament, vs. Crossett, District 8 winner, 2 p.m.

Forrest City, runner-up in the District 6 tourney, vs. Little Rock's Big Eight tournament champions,
3:20 p.m.

Green Forest, district 1-E winner, vs. Whitehall, runnerup in District
8, 7:30 p.m.

Jonesboro, which finished second in the District 3 tournament, vs.
North Little Rock, Big Eight runner-up, 8:50 p.m.

Green Forest jockeyed four minutes with Lavaca. Then, with the score 2-7 in their favor, the Tigers drove to a commanding lead which they never relinquished.

The scoring punch in the first quarter was well distributed. Carroll Jackson, Billy Johnson, Ora Lee Boss, and Calvin Mitchell combined to give Green Forest an 18-11 lead at the first turn. Lavaca never got that close again.

In the second quarter, Green Forest continued its barrage, closing out the first half with 16 field goals in 30 attempts, a percentage that will win games in any league.

The score at the half was 34-24.
Boss, one of two returning all-tournament players, scored 20 points and led his team in rebounds with 12. He bucketed 12 of the 23 shots from the field with startling ease.

The other returning all tourney player, Ed Graham, scored 18 points for Lavaca. He got most of his points on shots from 20 feet out.

The foundation for North Little Rock's one-sided conquest of Emerson was big Fred Blankenship, a 6-3 senior. Using his height to full advantage, Blankenship played the backboards better than anyone in the tournament to date. He captured 19 rebounds and scored 19 points.

Because of Blankenship's inside work, and the accuracy of Charles Eagle and R. L. Shant from the outside, North Little Rock settled the issue early. The Wildcats raced to a 25-9 lead in the first quarter and never were in trouble. Eagle scored 20 points for North Little Rock.

Overshadowed by North Little Rock's wide margin was a fine individual performance by Emerson's Pat Foster. He scored 30 points and grabbed 15 rebounds.

Jonesboro zipped past Stuttgart, scoring with all the ease of flipping a light switch. And, the fast-breaking Hurricane turned the switch every time they got a chance.

Starting fast — and keeping up the pace all the way — Jonesboro took an 8-0 lead in the first two minutes. Then Jimmy Argo dropped in a free throw for Stuttgart's first point.

The first quarter ended 16-7, and set the tone for the remaining three periods. Stuttgart got only eight field goals in 50 attempts.
Jonesboro, firing 68 times from the field connected on 25.

Bill Caldwell scored 18 points for Jonesboro and Tommy Rankin dropped in 14.

NBC Awarded TV Football Rights

NEW YORK (AP)—National television rights for college football next season have been awarded to the National Broadcasting Company by the NCAA television committee.

The 1936 program provides for nation-wide telecasts on eight dates, seven of them Saturdays and the other Thanksgiving Day.

Regional telecasting will prevail on five other Saturdays. These will be handled by the individual colleges and conferences.

The schedule of games to be carried nationally will be announced shortly.

The city of Nazareth, home city of Christ, is not mentioned in the Old Testament.

Holder of a number of valuable patents, sought after as a consultant, Globus also has made his mark as a businessman.

He heads two firms of his own. One is the world's largest producer of powdered titanium a lightweight strong noncorrosive metal. The other manufactures a powerful germicide derived from chlorine.

The chemical which he feels ultimately will prove more beneficial to mankind than any known antibiotic, is used for a wide variety of purposes. They range from the treatment of bladder infections and athlete's foot to the sterilization of surgical instruments and the deodorization of dogs and cats. It is being tested as a food preservative and as a fungicide to treat diseases of agricultural plants.

Globus said he recently had turned down a two-million-dollar bid from a major chemical firm for the exclusive rights to his chemical, and added thoughtfully:

"I just wonder what I'd do with such a sum of money. I don't need it. When you have put as much of your life into a thing as I have in this, you hate to turn it over to someone who may regard it only as another commercial venture."

What Globus really yearned to prove was that as a chemist he could do more for mankind, than he could have if he had become a doctor. But he can't prove it to the man he'd most like to. His father is no longer living.
